NAI Hunneman Fully Leases Out 109 State St.

Rive Technology has leased 1,883 square feet at 109 State St. in Boston, bringing the building to 100 percent occupancy.

Jeffrey Becker, senior vice president; and Bonny Doorakian, vice president, of NAI Hunneman, represented the property on behalf of owner/manager Daniel René Commercial Real Estate.

"The success of NAI Hunneman's leasing campaign at 109 State St., which now is fully leased, is directly attributable to ownership's passions for their property," said Becker in a statement.

The a five-story, 25,000-square-foot office building had been renovated from a Class C property into an boutique-style Class B office space.

Rive Technology is a provider of innovative materials for the refining, chemicals and biofuels industries. Jon Freni of CBRE/NE represented Rive Technology in the negotiation.
